

Please do not weaken Wisconsin's No Call List. I realize that businesses probably don't like it, but the law was created to help the citizens of the state. We are much more happy now that we don't have all of the annoying phone calls that invariably came during dinner or bed time. Our life is much more peaceful now. Please do not do anything to change that.

Sincerely,

John Sill